

INDIANA FURNITURE

The Perfect Sidekick.

Work today isn't one thing. It's focused moments, quick check ins, longer conversations, solo tasks, group work, regrouping, and doing it all over again.

Furniture has to keep up without making things complicated.

The Role of Furniture.

Like the perfect sidekick, great furniture understand its role. It knows when to support and when to step back. It's always ready when needed. It feels intuitive, comfortable, and familiar—like something people have worked with for years, even on day one. That sense of ease is no accident. It comes from developing furniture that is grounded in how people actually move through their days.

That mindset is at the core of Indiana Furniture. We manufacture furniture with intention. Furniture that adapts to evolving workflows. That elevates everyday moments. That enables a room to function—beautifully, intuitively, and with purpose.

And that's exactly what we're bringing to NeoCon this year—solutions created to support how work really happens.

Script Lounge.

Some moments call for structure. Others benefit from softness. Most need a little of both.

Script Lounge is designed for the in between—those spaces where people pause, connect, focus, or gather informally without fully switching off. Built around the principles of personalization, comfort, and choice, Script Lounge offers the freedom to configure individual experiences throughout the day.

By combining freestanding and modular forms, Script balances privacy with collaboration, empowering both individuals and teams to take on a wide range of tasks. Multiple back heights provide options for openness or enclosure, while linear and curved configurations help define spaces naturally. Coordinating tables, tapered or sled bases, and the ability to personalize with contrasting upholstery allow Script to move easily from casual to more sophisticated settings.

Script, Otty, Isla, Chat, Natta, Catalyst, and Dab

Script Jr., Otty, Spirit, and Cush

Script Lounge, Kirby Tables, Workmate Table, and Cush Pillows

Script models extend usability with junior-sized options and robust weight capacity ratings—supporting adults up to 400lbs and junior users up to 275lbs. The result is seating that invites people in and supports them once they're there—comfortable without being casual, flexible without feeling complicated, and ready for whatever the day brings.

Workmate Tables.

Not every solution needs to be flashy to be essential.

Workmate Tables are designed to quietly support the work that happens every day—especially in spaces that invite collaboration and where people are constantly on the move. Compact and light-weight, Workmate is the perfect solution to pull-up at lounge settings while still being tailored for an increasingly mobile workforce, ready to go wherever work needs to happen next.

With quick, intuitive height adjustability, Workmate supports seamless transitions from sitting to standing and adapts easily to group meetings, focused individual tasks, or on the go productivity. That versatility makes it an ideal sidekick across environments—from classrooms and offices to lounges and touchdown zones.

Spark Tables.

Work changes quickly. Furniture should too.

Designed for the dynamic nature of modern learning and working environments, Spark Multi- Purpose Tables are built to keep pace as needs shift throughout the day. From classrooms and training spaces to meeting rooms, libraries, and auditoriums, Spark supports smooth transitions between activities and group sizes without slowing things down.

With a broad selection of sizes, surface materials, and base styles—including flip and nest, mobile, and static options—Spark adapts easily to changing spatial and engagement requirements.

Spark Tables, Serenity Seating, and Canvas/Gesso Buffet

Spark, Spirit, Synergy, Script, and Cush

Spark, Dab, and Joy

Thoughtful accessories such as ganging brackets, modesty panels, power units, and lecterns enhance functionality and allow configurations to be customized with ease. The result is furniture that works hard without trying too hard—flexible, reliable, and ready whenever the story changes.

Catalyst Tables.

When collaboration works, it feels effortless.

Indiana Furniture continues to expand their most popular conferencing collection with new Catalyst Media and Huddle Tables—purpose built solutions designed to support efficient collaboration in today's hybrid workplaces. These tables help clearly define gathering spaces where teams connect, share ideas, and work together with clarity.

Catalyst Media Tables offer customizable back panel options, including open panels for wall applications, closed panels for open spaces, and dry erase or tackboard surfaces that support brainstorming and visual collaboration. Integrated power and optional TV mounts make it easy to connect technology without disrupting the flow of conversation.

Catalyst Tables and Synergy Seating

Catalyst, Serenity, Synergy, Script, Pitch, and Cush

Catalyst, Otty, and Iconic

Available in veneer or laminate with a range of edge profiles and finishes, Catalyst Media and Huddle Tables balance performance with a refined aesthetic. Height adjustable options promote accessibility and comfort, ensuring everyone can engage with ease. The result is furniture that removes friction from collaboration—letting teams focus on the work, not the setup.

Furniture that's Fun to Rely On.

At Indiana Furniture, thoughtful design is meant to feel approachable—smart without being serious, dependable without being rigid. The same can be said for the people behind it.

The Indiana Furniture team is known for being genuinely fun to work with—curious, collaborative, and always up for building relationships that go well beyond the sale. That spirit shows up in the way they listen, the way they partner, and the way they think about the role furniture plays in everyday work life.

When furniture quietly supports people, spaces work better. And when it brings a little joy along with that support, the workday feels lighter. That's intentional design and being the perfect sidekick at its best—loyal, adaptable, and ready to show up, with a little personality to spare.
