Greg Stoner Joins Indiana Furniture's Board of Directors

Jasper, IN, Feb 6, 2023 – Today, Indiana Furniture announced Greg Stoner has been elected to their board of directors. Stoner will bring decades of experience in corporate leadership and manufacturing, and a long track record of driving innovative and diverse teams globally.

"Greg has long been a visionary in the furniture and cabinet industries, applying his insight and experience to improving processes and building strong business models to benefit companies, stakeholders, and employees, as well as to meet/exceed the needs of target markets," said Phil Schneider, Chairman of the Board. "We're excited to welcome him to Indiana Furniture's board of directors, and I know that all of us will benefit from his leadership and expertise."

"I have a tremendous amount of passion for this industry," said Greg Stoner. "It's an honor to join Indiana Furniture's board of directors, and to be a part of a long-standing, value-led company that's constantly innovating within manufacturing, improving their market position, and delivering first-class service to the overall industry."

Stoner has nearly 40 years of progressive experience with manufacturing and marketing-related companies, including General Electric Lighting, Newell-Rubbermaid, Masterbrand Cabinets, Metrie, and, most recently, Olon Industries.

Over this period Stoner has developed a broad base of functional skills and has held executive leadership roles as VP Merchandising, Chief Financial Officer, and President/CEO. From a commercial point of view, he has extensive experience with national builders, big-box super stores (Home Centers, Office, and Mass Market Retailers) as well as the independent dealer channel (kitchen and bath) and wholesale millwork distributors across North America.
