The Grace Group to Represent Indiana Furniture

Jasper, Indiana – Indiana Furniture is pleased to announce the appointment of The Grace Group as their representatives for Los Angeles and Orange County, California.

Working together with corporate business, commercial interior design business, and office furniture dealerships, The Grace Group educates specifiers and users on all aspects of office furniture. From initial concepts and specification through installation The Grace Group cultivates the creative interior design process. Grace Group principal Kathryn Grace has been in the office furnishings industry for more than 20 years and has held positions with IFMA and IIDA, national organizations.

"We are excited to have Kathryn on our team as an independent representative", says Mike Blessinger, Indiana Furniture Vice President of Sales and Marketing. "She has a strong sales background and an excellent reputation with the architect and design community."

"Kathryn's background and knowledge will allow her to have an immediate impact with our customers" adds Blessinger. "We're thrilled to have her representing Indiana Furniture in southern California and looking forward to a successful partnership."

The Grace Group will also be expanding to a new showroom in the LA Mart effective June 1, 2010.

The Grace Group can be contacted at Kathryn@TheGraceGroupCalifornia.com or by visiting their website at www.TheGraceGroupCalifornia.com
